

Position Vacant

Vacancy ID: DIESEL FITTER (2016033)

VLI is an OEM and market leader in the supply of specialized equipment and allied services used in the coal mining and bulk material handling industries globally.

Our Emerald Branch is currently seeking experienced Diesel Fitters to conduct timely and accurate maintenance/repairs of underground mining equipment; including breakdown and preventative/scheduled maintenance works as required. Work will be primarily based in Emerald workshop but field work will also be needed on an as required basis.

To be considered for this permanent position, you will ideally have:

- Be trade qualified
- Have previous experience with diesel mining equipment and heavy underground equipment
- Hydraulic / Pneumatic diagnostic experience
- Demonstrated experience with Code D repairs and RII09 accreditation
- Strong attention to detail
- Be able to successfully complete a pre-employment medical
- Possess a proactive commitment to their own, and their colleagues, Health and Safety in the Workplace
- Standard 11 Certification – preferred
- Bosch Gas Meter Training – preferred
- Brake Test Mobile Plant Certification - preferred

To Apply: If you are interested in applying for this role, please email your resume addressing the selection criteria, to: careers@vli.com.au and quote reference number: 2016033 or call Catherine on 02 4964 2324.

VLI is an Equal Opportunity Employer